

Master's of Science in Psychology

Year I

Foundations of Counseling OR
of Clinical Psychology
Social and Cultural Diversity in Counseling* OR in Clinical Practice*
Ethical, Legal and Professional Issues in Counseling* OR
in Clinical Practice*
Developmental Psychology across the Lifespan
Psychopathology and Diagnosis
Clinical Interviewing and Consultation
Clinical Assessment Instruments*
Cognitive Behavioral Psychotherapy I & II
Counseling for Chemical Dependencies*
Statistics and Hypothesis Testing
* May be offered in Year II

concentration in:
Clinical Psychology

concentration in:
Clinical
Mental Health Counseling

Year II

Career Counseling and Lifestyle Development*
Psychotraumatology
Cognitive Behavioral Psychotherapy III
Couples and Family Counseling
Approaches to Group Psychotherapy
Research Design and Evaluation
Internship Seminar & Personal Development I & II Thesis Research and Completion (only for those in Clinical Psychology)
 May be offered in Year I

Year III

Thesis Research and Completion Internship III & Personal Development
Internship IV & Personal Development
 These courses are electives